TSA APPROVED

MELBOURNE INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT SECURITY BADGE RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All persons in the AOA portion of the Airport will be required to display on their persons, at all times, the proper Airport issued security identification badge. The security identification badge will be displayed on the upper portion of the body on the outer garment so as to be clearly visible.
2. It is not permissible, under any circumstances, to use another person's security identification badge or to allow another person to use your security identification badge.
3. Each person must enter AOA and SIDA/Secure Area using their own security identification badge. Multiple persons entering an automated access point on a single entry transaction is PROHIBITED. All badge holders shall wait until the door or gate is fully closed before leaving the area.
4. Security identification badge holders operating motorized equipment on airport property or Ramp/AOA Areas will ensure that all vehicles and passenger gates are locked or must be attended at all times. Personnel monitoring gates are responsible to ensure persons utilizing these gates are in compliance with MAA and TSA Regulations.
5. Un-badged individuals may have access provided they are escorted by a properly badged person that is authorized to access that area. The escort must maintain constant visible and audible contact with the person(s) under escort.
6. Mutilation or alteration of any security identification badges, access keys, and parking placards will invalidate these items, and are no way transferable or to be duplicated.
7. Airport security identification badges, access keys, and parking placards remain the property of the Melbourne Airport Authority and must be surrendered upon demand or returned to the Airport Authority upon the individual's termination of employment or work assignment at the Melbourne International Airport.
8. All lost, stolen, or otherwise not properly returned security identification badges or keys must be promptly reported to the badge sponsor and thereafter to the Airport Security Coordinator or his designee at the Melbourne Airport Police Department in writing.
9. Failure to return any security identification badges or control access keys will subject you to a fine of $100.00 for each item not returned, lost, misplaced or stolen. Applicants hereby authorizes their badge sponsor to invoice them in the amount of $100 or deduct $100.00 from applicant's wages for any such badge and/or key not promptly returned upon signing the badge application.
10. All security badge holders will renew their issued Airport identification security badge before the expiration date which is listed on the front of the badge.
11. It is the responsibility of each security identification badge holder to challenge any individual not displaying an Airport issued security identification badge while on Airport property.

Challenge procedures are:

- Approach the un-badged individual in a non-threatening and helpful manner and inquire as to the reasons why the un-badged individual is within the secure area portion of the Airport.
 - When an un-badged individual cannot produce an Airport security identification badge, the individual conducting the challenge must escort the person out of the secure area and report this incident to a Melbourne Airport Police Officer for further investigation.
 - If an authorized individual cannot approach an un-badged person for safety reasons, the authorized individual must keep close surveillance of the un-badged person and immediately contact a Melbourne Airport Police Officer to report the incident.
 - 24 hour Melbourne Airport Police emergency notification number is 321-288-0147, which is located on the back of the security identification badge.
12. The Melbourne Airport Authority reserves the right to refuse or revoke authorization of any individual for Airport identification security badges where such action is determined to be in the best interest of Melbourne Airport security.
 13. Applicants must obtain their security badge within 30 days of employment or occupancy at the Melbourne International Airport.
 14. Individuals accessing or present within the sterile area, secured area, SIDA, AOA or boarding aircraft are subject to search by TSA of his or her person and accessible property pursuant to Title 49 USC §44903.
